

Elly Winger

"...Because a woman's gotta do what she's gotta do..."

"True roots music, with a wicked sense of humor and top notch finger style guitar playing, award-winning songwriter Elly Winger is delighting audiences with a cornucopia of Americana styles from straight ahead country blues to hilarious satire in her "Weird El" persona. An early protégée of superlative picker David Bromberg, Elly has mastered (mistrissed?) an array of folk styles and makes them sing with authentic and inspired performances."

2008 Folk DJ's Choice / Northeast Regional Folk Alliance
